

Who is this for?

This qualification is typically delivered over 1 day. It is intended for those that are working in industries that sell/serve alcohol. This may include in a retail environment or in the hospitality sector.

The qualification is perfect for those that are applying for a personal license to sell alcohol and is recognised by the Home Office for this purpose.

Key points

- Regulated qualification
- Written to meet current legislation
- Recognised by the Home office for personal licence applications
- 9 Guided learning hours (1 day)
- Certificate included
- Assessed by MCQs

Course content

This qualification has been developed to shared units with other regulated awarding organisations. The qualification covers relevant licensing legislation.

Topics include:

- Licensing authorities
- Personal and premises licences
- Operating schedules
- Permitted temporary activities
- Unauthorised licensable activities
- Police powers and rights of entry
- Legal and social responsibilities of the personal licence holder
- Illegal drugs, the effects of alcohol and disorderly conduct
- Protection of children

Course Description:

This is a legal requirement that all sales of alcohol taking place on licensed premises in England and Wales must be authorised by a personal licence holder.

Our nationally recognised Level 2 Award for Personal Licence Holders (APLH) qualification is approved and fully accredited by The Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual). This 1-day training course has been designed to meet the statutory requirements and includes vital information on the responsibilities of licence holders, duties of the designated premises supervisor (DPS), the role & powers of licensing authorities and police regarding licensed premises.

Who should attend:

All employees at all levels, specifically involved in the retail sale of alcohol and looking towards becoming a Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS).

COURSE UNITS

- The roles, responsibilities and functions of licensing authorities.
- The role and legal responsibilities of the personal licence holder.
- The premises licence.
- The role and duties of the designated premises supervisor.
- Unauthorised and temporary licensable activities.
- Prohibitions for the sale of alcohol
- Strengths of alcohol, and the effects on the human body
- Protection of children from harm
- Responsible sale of alcohol.

ASSESSMENT

Multiple Choice Exam (40 questions)

Course Cost?

We will deliver the 1-day Level 2 Personal License Holder course at your venue for £90.00 per person based on a minimum of 10 candidates and a maximum of 16.

To book:

*Please call on 07822 010950 or email:
info@harrisflynnttraining.co.uk*