

Appeals Policy

Harris Flynn Training Ltd is a progressive training organisation providing mandatory training to a range of organisations. We provide a range of First Aid, health and safety and security qualifications through various awarding bodies.

At Harris Flynn Training Ltd we are committed to providing high quality training and qualifications, and to ensuring that equality of opportunity underpins all aspects of our work.

This policy relates to complaints that our customers, students and suppliers may have about our organisation and sets out our formal procedure for dealing with appeals.

It is important that all appeals are raised directly with Harris Flynn Training Ltd.

Our appeals policy is a four stage process, each process is detailed below, most appeals will be resolved to a satisfactory standard at stage one.

If the appeal is not resolved at stage one then it should be escalated to stage two and if not resolved again it should be escalated to stage three, finally if not resolved at the third stage the final stage should be used.

Stage one:

- The appeal is raised directly with the assessor conducting the assessment, who will deal with the concern at the time that it is raised.
- The usual course of action would be for the candidate to repeat the assessment.

Stage two:

- If the candidate is still not happy with the outcome of the second assessment, they should raise this as soon as possible with the course tutor or centre manager, details of the centre manager are provided here:
- Andy Harris, Harris Flynn Training Ltd, Flat 4 Sayers House, The Grange, East Finchley, London N2 8NJ, andy@harrisflynntraining.co.uk, www.harrisflynntraining.co.uk.
- We will aim to resolve all appeals within 10 working days in writing.

Stage three:

- Only if the candidate is still not happy with the outcome from the training centre can they refer their appeal to the awarding body, who will carry out an investigation into the appeal and will contact the appellant with the results of their investigation.
- Please ask for awarding body contact details.

Stage four:

- Stage four is the final stage of the appeal, if your appeal has not been resolved, you can take your appeal to Ofqual, CCEA regulation or QiW using their appeals procedure, however, you must have exhausted all options above.

You can make us aware of your appeal by letter, phone or email.

You need to provide regulators with the following information:

- What the appeal is about

- Your full name and candidate number (if you have one)
- The training provider's name and number
- The name of the awarding organisation or exam board
- The qualification or unit title and code number
- Copies of any relevant supporting documents.

Ofqual promise to:

- acknowledge receipt of your appeal within two working days of receiving it
- give you a full response within 30 working days.

Harris Flynn Training Ltd will keep a written record of all appeals made and the outcomes, this will be made available to any inspectors or other organisations that conduct Quality Assurance based audits.

Our primary is to provide high quality customer focused training and qualifications; therefore, we aim to have very few appeals to our decisions and certainly aim to resolve any appeals within our company.
